

GLENNON SHIES AT POLICE BAIT.

Ex-Wardman in No Hurry to Put Head in Noose by Reporting for Patrol Duty to Get Back Pay.

HIS FRIENDS WARN HIM.

They Say That, with a Fortune of $250,000 and Good Profits at the Races, He Has No Reason to Worry About the Future.

Friends of Former Wardman Edward Glennon, Devere's confidential man, and former ruler of the Tenderloin, say he is not likely to give up his present profitable employment of taking money away from the Morris Park bookmakers to don a police uniform and "round the sidewalk."

The only inducement Glennon has to go back to the force, from which he was dropped by Commissioner Murphy after his conviction in court for neglect of duty, is $2,000 back pay, but that isn't such a tempting bait for an ex-wardman, as retired policemen go in New York. Men of the class Glennon trained with were saving while on the force and could count their money by the hundred thousand when retirement reached them.

Glennon's intimates say he is worth close to $250,000 to-day, and would look on $2,000 back pay as a mere bagatelle. Besides, any attempt on his part to return to the force in order to collect it would put him under Commissioner's Greene's power.

A Bait for Him.
He would be served with notice of charges the minute he got his head, and that would mean trial and conviction before one of the Deputy Police Commissioners, a fact that would gravely prejudice his chances of escaping conviction on the trial ordered in his case by the Court of Appeals.

Glennon has not yet been officially notified of his reinstatement. Col. Kip, chief clerk at Police Headquarters, notified Capt. Cottrell, of the Seventeenth Precinct, to send a man to Glennon's home today and order him to report at headquarters for assignment to duty. The policeman found that immediately after Glennon's dismissal from the force he moved from his modest home at No. 34 West Twenty-fourth street to a palatial residence on the upper West side, close to Riverside Drive. No one in the neighborhood knew the address except the bartenders at a nearby saloon, and they were not giving it out for publication. Glennon still goes to the saloon for his business meal, but he did not drop in to-day.

Danger Signal Out.
Some of his friends said he might go down to headquarters, get his head and report sick until pay day, but legal opinion stuck to the idea that Glennon would be putting his head in a noose by attempting to grab the back-pay bait.

Around Police Headquarters there were some quiet chuckles over the clever way ex-Chief Devere arranged for Glennon's dismissal. Commissioner Murphy simply reeled Glennon's name rubbed off the pay roll. The effect of this was that Glennon was never legally deprived of his right to pay in the department.

Died from Injuries.
Edward Call, thirty-five years old, of No. 627 Greenwich street, died in St. Vincent's Hospital to-day from injuries received by being run over by a wagon at the foot of West Eleventh street on May 16.

SWALLOWED HIS DEAD SURE TIP.

Roberts, Caught with the Goods On by a Detective, Destroys Half of the Evidence by Eating It.

GAVE OUT A 100 TO 1 SHOT.

It was Caterpillar, in the Fourth Race, and, True to His Name, He Was an "Also Ran"—"Stung," Said Bookie When Held for Trial.

A concern styling itself the Roberts-Wright Company has been advertising in the racing papers the only "sure-thing" tips on the horses that have been furnished since the Johnson-Lee firm was suppressed in its ill-fated get-rich-quick career. The Roberts-Wright firm advertised from room 307, No. 23 Broadway.

Detective-Sergeant Peabody, McConville and Clark called around there yesterday. Peabody went in and found Mr. Roberts chewing a straw and trying to make his legs look bandy so as to give the impression that he was horsey. "What's the good thing," asked Peabody.

A 100-to-1 Shot.
"Sh-h-h! Got it dead," said Roberts. "It's a 100-to-1 shot, but I mustn't breathe the name—it would be a shame to spoil such a mellow."

"Well, how can I lay a bet on it," asked Peabody as he dipped for his roll.

"You've got the money as good as won. I'll lay it for you. Its Caterpillar in the fourth race. Don't even whisper it to your best girl. Here's a receipt for your bet: meet me at the Waldorf to-night for your thousand."

"I'm a cop," said Peabody, showing his shield. "Come and see the sergeant at the station-house."

"Not with that paper in your mitt," said Roberts, snatching at the receipt.

He Swallowed His Tip.
He got half of it, but Peabody got him and called for his side-partners. McConville and Clark rushed in, but Roberts in the mean time had torn up his half of the tip and swallowed it.

He seemed to enjoy it.

He was arraigned before Magistrate Deuel in the Tombs Police Court to-day for making a book on the races.

"Stung," said Roberts as he left. "And to think that I should have been pinched after only three days in the business!"

And Caterpillar also ran.

Three-sixteenths to Capt. S. A. Mathewson, his half-brother, of Brooklyn, N. Y.; one-sixteenth to his aunt, Marie Kalverson, of Mendota, Buffalo County, Wisconsin; two-sixteenths to his friend, W. E. Hendrick, of El Oro; five-sixteenths to his friend Thomas Quirk, of the Isle of Axin, now of El Oro; five-sixteenths to Miss Emilia Rigby.

Capt. S. A. Mathewson's name does not appear in the Brooklyn directory. There are many seafaring men living on Long Island just beyond the Brooklyn line.

As with individuals, so with impersonal business corporations—Diamonds must sometimes go to the block—be sold at a sacrifice. A case in point:

$11,000.00 Worth of Diamond Jewelry Will Be Sold for $7,500.00.

The lot is small. It is also extraordinarily choice. Principally Rings and Brooches. They are set with Diamonds selected by one of the famous experts of this country. We don't know the exigency that induced the manufacturers to sell such goods so much below their real value. Perhaps money was needed imperatively. That's the natural inference. Be that as it may, here are the precious things at a saving of about 25 per cent. And did you know that a measure is now before the House of Commons favoring the addition of another 30 per cent. export duty on Diamonds? If it goes through—prices will soar. Meanwhile this sale. We mention a few of the pieces.

Japanese and China Mattings.

New Mattings—don't forget that every roll beneath this roof is new, and therefore serviceable—certain to wear as long as you expect—without cracking or splitting or annoying you with broken ends of straw pushing through. And another point:—Being fresh they are tractable—flexible, resilient—lying flat and smooth without wrinkling or puckering.

The Japanese Mattings simulate Carpets—in patterns and colorings. Some of the designs are daintily detached; others are all-overs—ying with the most ornate Axminster and Brussels effects.

The China Mattings hold their admirers—they are strong and artistic.

China Mattings, close, fine, firm weaves—combinations of clear, strong blues, reds and greens in fancy bold designs.
